MRS. M. M. HUMBERT.

Resolutions on Her Death by W. F. M. Society of Central Church, of Which She Was President.

Whereas, our Heavenly Father in His infinite wisdom has taken from our midst our friend and beloved president of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of Central church, Newberry, S. C., whose great delight was to serve our Lord and to labor in the Master's cause. She was so noble and true. Her life was one of happy unselfish service, desiring to bless rather than to be blessed, and to give rather than to receive. By faith and love working through gentleness, she showed the beauty of the Christian life. Her soul was adorned with all the spiritual graces and she walked daily in the light of God's countenance, and amid the busy cares of life she found strength and peace at the feet of Jesus. The real throne of her power was Foreign Missions. Therefore, Resolved:

1. That we thank God for such a life as was hers, and that we treasure her life's work as a precious legacy. That all the memories that cluster around her life may be an inspiration to all her friends and loved ones, "She being dead, yet speaketh."

2. That we emulate her gentle graces of character, and her zeal and enthusiasm for Foreign Missions and the advancement of the Master's cause.

3. That we do miss her presence from her accustomed place, but we know our loss is her gain, and we bow in humble submission to Him that doeth all things well, grateful that the memory we have for her will remain with us to cheer and to bless.

4. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Advocate, to our Southern Christian Advocate, and to the town papers for publication and a copy be inscribed to her memory on our minute book.

Mrs. Mary Wright.
Mrs. Corrie Greneker.
Mrs. C. M. Cook.

KILLED NEGRO FERRYMAN.

Mr. Nevit Brown Goes to Winnsboro And Surrenders to Fairfield Sheriff.

Mr. Nevit Brown, living in the section of county between Blairs and Pomaria, went to Winnsboro and surrendered to the sheriff of Fairfield county on Wednesday, as the result of the death of the negro, Elmore Richardson, who was cut by Mr. Brown in a difficulty on the Fairfield side of the river, on last Saturday.

Mr. Brown is a son of Mr. W. Frank Brown, of the county. He is about twenty-eight years of age, and is a farmer.

It seems that he had driven to the river on last Saturday to cross to the Fairfield side. Richardson is the ferryman. After Mr. Brown got on the other side of the river the difficulty occurred, in which Mr. Brown cut the negro in the stomach with a knife. The negro was taken to the Madalen hospital, in Chester, where he died on Monday.

Mr. Brown is represented by Eugene S. Blease, Esq., of the Newberry bar, who will apply for bail.

FOR A GREATER SOUTH.

The Special Representative of the Southern Commercial Congress Was in Newberry Yesterday.

Mrs. Theo. Johnstone, Secretary Missionary Society.

Winifred Townsend Concert Co. Tonight.

Do not forget the lyceum tonight. The Winifred Townsend Concert company promises to give a first-class entertainment. They all are artists. Gelosco, the great Spanish-French violinist, under whom Miss Winifred Townsend studied, says: "Miss Townsend is an excellent violinist and ranks among the best of my students."

Miss Townsend played with great success at the "Academie Vitti," in Paris, where only solo artists appear. Ralph Walker, with his rich and powerful baritone voice always pleases. Mr. Beauchamp, who lectured to us some years ago says: "I could have listened to Mr. Walker sing all night. That's what I call singing."

Miss Faele Townsend, aside from her clear and high soprano voice, is especially gifted as a reader.

Judge Tillman, president University of Arkansas, says: "The Townsend company is far above the average. They are artists of real ability. Their work is beautiful, chaste and elevating."

The program is arranged so as to please the lovers of popular music as well as the lovers of classical music. Aside from the instrumental and vocal solos, trios, duets, etc., there will be sketches and readings of high character.

A most enjoyable evening is promised. This will be the last entertainment of its kind before the New Year. Single admission 50 cents. Season tickets may be purchased at door at reduced rates. Concert begins 8.15.

SOCIAL

Mrs. Jno. K. Aull entertained the Wednesday Afternoon club and a few friends most delightfully Wednesday.

All are busy on Christmas articles this season of the year, so the guests carried their fancy work and sewed as they chatted. During the afternoon each guest wrote a card to Mrs. W. C. Schenck, the absent member of the club. Three members were elected: Mrs. Frank Sligh, Miss Anita Davidson, and Miss Mazie Dominick. Miss Elizabeth Dominick was chosen president of the club and Miss Carrie Lou Connor, secretary. Those present were Mrs. Herman Wright, Mrs. L. G. Eskridge, Mrs. Frank Sligh, Miss Carrie Lou Connor, Misses Blanche and Anita Davidson, Miss Sarah Robinson, Misses Cora and Elizabeth Dominick and Miss Gertrude Garwile.

Mrs. Carwile will entertain the Fortnightly club on Friday morning with a twelve o'clock luncheon.

The children's chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy will have a Christmas window in the Wallace Piano Co.'s window Saturday morning. There will be a Santa Claus and Christmas tree. The proceeds of the sale will go to orphans. This should appeal to every mother's heart and the children should have a liberal patronage.

A Card of Thanks.

Mr. Editor: Through the columns of your valuable newspaper I desire to express my sincere and heartfelt thanks to my many friends for their kindness and attention shown me during my recent and severe attack of appendicitis. Especially do I thank the Red Men and Pocahontas, and also Mr. A. H. Bouknight, and his class of West End Sunday school for their visiting and waiting upon me, and doing all that could be done to comfort and cheer me in my affliction. Their deeds of kindness I will ever cherish in my memory. May God bless them in all their undertakings. I am thankful that through the inspiration of Almighty God, the Maker of us all, and the faithfulness and skill of my esteemed and attentive physician, Dr. J. M. Kibler, I am able to be up again, and trust it will not be long before I will be well again.

Sincerely yours,
T. B. Kibler.

Marriage Wednesday Evening.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Betts, at Chappells, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, the Rev. The fortunate groom was formerly a resident of Helena, a son of the late Wm. A. Pitts, who was a well-known and capable railroad section boss, and the friends of young Clint Pitts congratulate him and wish for him and his lovely Chappells bride a long, loving life full of the choicest blessings of peace and plenty.

DEATH OF MR. J. Z. SALTER.

Had Been Engaged in the Photograph Business in Newberry For 27 Years.

Mr. J. Z. Salter died at his home in Helena late Wednesday evening, aged sixty years. He had been sick for some time, and his death was not unexpected.

Mr. Salter had been engaged in the photograph business in Newberry for twenty-seven years, and was known as one of the leading photographers in the State. He was a native of Saluda county, and moved from there to Vaughnville, in the upper part of this county, near the Laurens line, where he engaged in farming and in the business of wheelwright. From Vaughnville he came to Newberry in 1883, engaging in the business in which he continued up until the time of his death. His work was of a high order of excellence, and his studio was noted for its artistic productions.

Mr. Salter was a quiet and unassuming man of sterling character, who loved his work, and who made a good citizen. He was a consistent member of Central Methodist church, this city.

Mr. Salter is survived by nine children: Miss Lizzie Salter, Mrs. Arthur Kibler, of Newberry; Mr. Jesse Salter, Mrs. E. C. Witt, of Lake City, Fla.; Miss Minnie Salter, Daytona, Fla.; Mr. Otway Salter, of Chattanooga, and Messrs. Leroy and Leon Salter, of Newberry. Four brothers survive him—Messrs. C. W. Salter, of Greenville; Josiah Salter, of Vaughnville; Jas. P. Salter, of Aiken, and Jno. R. Salter, of Johnston. His wife, who was a Miss Sheppard, died about two years ago.

The funeral services will be held at the home on Friday morning at 10.30 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. M. L. Banks, of Central Methodist church, and interment will be in Rosemont cemetery.

Obituary.

Mr. Stanmore Yarbrough Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Morris, died December 3, 1910, at the age of 36 years, 11 months and 22 days. For over four years he was the object of attack of the much dreaded disease, tuberculosis, which finally proved itself victorious. He was a confirmed member of St. Mark's E. L. church, of Saluda county, and just a short while before his death he very appreciatively received the Lord's Supper. On December 5 his body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Prosperity, after appropriate funeral services, in which his pastor had the assistance of Rev. Dudley, of the Baptist church.

He leaves to mourn his departure a father, a mother, a sister and a host of other relatives and friends. During his illness he received many kindnesses from his friends, for which he was very grateful. He was a friendly and talented young man and his presence will be greatly missed in his parental home, but we submit to the hand of Him, who doeth all things for the best.

J. B. Harman.

2. That a copy of this resolution be sent the bereaved family, and that a copy be sent to the Lexington and Newberry county papers for publication.

Take Heed.

The Spartanburg Journal says if next spring there should be a May frost which would kill many of the cotton plants, seed would go to $1 a bushel. The high price paid for seed this fall will make planting seed scarce next spring. Each farmer should save at least two bushels of best seed for every acre he expects to plant and then plant one bushel to the acre. That will leave enough to plant the second time, if the necessity should arise.
